Together for each other. “Basecamp” usage at German PATLIB Association PIZnet.de

Arne Krüger, Head of Arbeitsgemeinschaft der Patentinformationszentren e.V.

together for each other

collaborating in diverse, distributed groups of professionals

- we share history, experiences and values
- we share craftsmanship, training and tools
- we share some relationships in our networks
- we share agreement on common goals and topics we share parts of our invaluable lifetime together!

collaborating in diverse, distributed groups of professionals

- we share parts of our address book
- we create and distribute texts and documents together
- we share the status & results of action items with each other
- we share parts of our calendar with each other
- we take part in calls, meetings, events, workshops, trainings efficient & effective communication in larger groups. not easy!
